Carol Kasmer Irving offers intensive, one-on-one weaving classes in her Escanaba, Michigan Lakeside studio. Scheduling is based on the student's need. Length of classes is usually 2 to 5 days to learn the basics and produce a sampler or weaving of your choosing. Price of classes are $150/day, plus a $40 materials fee. Class fees by the hour are $35/hour.

Need extra help or support? Phone support is available, before or after the class. Call or text with your questions regarding the class you took. $35/hour with a $20 minimum per contact. Calls taking more than 30 minutes will be charged at $35/hr.

Rooms are for rent on site: single person rate is $55/night. Includes your own bath, shared kitchen, on the shores of Lake Michigan. Close to fine dining and shopping, including evening entertainment, organic groceries, and more. Activities can include swimming, kayaking, or cross country skiing. Don't want to rent a car? Carol will provide transportation from airport.

Study with a buddy! Bring a friend to learn with and receive 10% off your class fee. Bedroom will accommodate 2 people.

Beginner Weavers will learn to:

Plan and warp your loom

Weave straight edges

Weave faster and better

Intermediate Weavers will:

Choose their own project

Work on and become proficient on weaving skills

All Weavers will:

Learn about Shaft Switching, weft faced weaving and designing if desired.

Deposits are 50% of the total, and can be paid with check (preferred) or Venmo (venmo.com), PayPal or Credit Card with an additional fee of 4%. Your registration will be confirmed upon receipt. All deposits are non-refundable (except in the very unlikely event that a class must be cancelled by me). The balance will be due 30 days before the class begins.

Carol will create personalized instruction based on student level and concerns. You will learn more about color and design theory, and you will have access to her extensive library.
